

Pair Of Cookie Groups: Playing Putti - Louis XVI Style 19th Century

260 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Porcelain

Description

Charming pair of porcelain cookies in the Louis XVI style from the 19th century, depicting putti amidst garlands of flowers and putti putti playing at harvesting. False Sèvres signature under the base. Ideal to complete an 18th-century decoration; these decorative objects are typical of the period, to be placed on a chest of drawers or mantelpiece to complement a clock, or on a festive table for a refined dinner. Good condition. One child has a broken foot. Width : 12cm Height : 15cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000