Description

Important antique Gashghai rug with three medallions - Shiraz, early 20th century. These import course access options will be available between April 10th and 15th - for layout and some photos on the touchscreen. Very fine Gashghai tribal rug from southern Iran, featuring a remarkable three aligned hexagonal medallions, connected by a central structuring axis, on a deep midnight-blue field. The entire field is enlivened by a profusion of finely stylized tribal and symbolic motifs, characteristic of the nomadic Gashghai repertoire, offering a dense and lively reading. The composition is harmoniously framed by a large main border with ivory background, adorned with repetitive geometric motifs, flanked by finely drawn secondary endpapers, lending balance and elegance to the whole.
