Description

???? 50's Renault workshop cart in metal and oak
???????? Born in the effervescence of Renault's workshops in the 50's, this industrial cart still carries with it the memory of work, metal, precise gestures and the passing of time. Its sturdy riveted steel structure recounts an era when the object was designed to last, to serve, to accompany the hands.???? The traces of the past are not erased - they are sublimated. The original patina, with its worn nuances and workshop marks, gives the piece a rare, almost palpable authenticity. Every shine, every irregularity contributes to its character.???? The carefully varnished top surface is smooth and deep, contrasting with the roughness of the metal. At the bottom, a beautiful solid oak shelf warms the whole, adding a natural, elegant touch.???? Mounted on its original castors, it retains all its mobility and utilitarian spirit. It's easy to move around, as it once was between workbenches, but today it's at the service of a characterful interior.???? Both a piece of furniture and a conversation piece, it finds its place as a sideboard, mobile bar, console or central element in an industrial or contemporary space. It structures a room as much as it attracts the eye.???? Restored with respect, it is sound, stable and ready for use, while retaining its original soul and patina.????
