Description

Elegant Louis XVI period bergère, resting on a tapered and fluted base, typical of this refined aesthetic of the late 18th century. Its carved wood structure features an antique patina of off-white and natural wood nuances, charmingly revealing the wear of time. The straight, slightly curved backrest and upholstered armrests offer comfortable seating. The ensemble is upholstered in a fabric decorated with pale green stripes and floral garlands, in harmony with the classic spirit of the piece. good condition
