Description

Refined late 18th-century reverse glass oil painting depicting the Flight into Egypt. The composition shows the Virgin holding the Child, accompanied by Saint Joseph, while an angel guides the donkey along the journey. The scene is rendered with a delicate devotional character typical of late 18th-century popular production. The reverse glass technique enhances the luminosity of the colors, giving the work a vivid decorative presence. Frame not original. Dimensions: Painting: 22.5 x 18.5 cm Frame: 23 x 28 cm Period: late 18th century Technique: oil on glass Condition: good overall condition, consistent age-related wear
