Description

Louis XV period cabinet in solid walnut, regional work from the Rhone Valley Elegant Louis XV period cabinet in solid wood, opening with two doors, characterized by its curved lines and sober, refined decor. The front features wide molded panels with scalloped shapes, highlighting a superb walnut grain. The central jamb is adorned with vertical fluting, surmounted by a carved motif in reserve. The overhanging cornice emphasizes the elegance of the silhouette, while the moving base rests on slightly curved feet, typical of the style. The antique hardware adds to the authentic charm of the ensemble. ????
