Description

Beautiful 19th-century Charles X secretary in bird's-eye maple inlaid with amaranth motifs. It opens on the front with a molded doucine drawer. A flap reveals a walnut and walnut burl interior with eight drawers, two of which are secret on the sides (drawers). Three superimposed drawers open on the lower part (lower section). It is topped with a light gray marble veined with black. This high quality piece of furniture is in perfect condition. Although the keys are present, the locks do not work very well. L/P/H: 86 X 37 X 144 cm. L/P/H flap: 72 X 54 X 72 cm. Cabinet depth with flap open: 88 cm. L/P of marble: 99 X 44 cm. Thickness: 3 cm.
