Description

This scene, probably 17th or 18th century, depicts horsemen at the foot of a bridge. We have not found a signature but however the drawing is of high quality probably a hand. The frame is gilded. We report folds, stains, pitting, the paper is curled, however this drawing remains in generally presentable condition. Note rubbing and traces of gilding wear on the frame. Sold uncleaned, plain, untouched. For condition, please detail photos. Photos are an integral part of the description.
