Description

Superb and very rare Transition-period secretary, featuring a magnificent herringbone frieze decoration and a finely crafted central floral medallion.

Exceptional piece for its dimensions: width very rare on this type of furniture. Opening with a drawer surmounting a leather-trimmed flap, uncovering ten drawers including one with inkwell. It features a black leather-trimmed writing pull under the drawer. This can only be opened when the flap is closed. It features a black leather-trimmed writing tablet under the drawer. Bottom section opens through two doors. Both decorative and functional piece of furniture.

A rare piece on the market, especially in these proportions. The piece is both decorative and functional. The locks are
