Description

Elegant Dutch rectangular table from the late 18th century, crafted in rosewood and richly inlaid with fine woods. The top is entirely decorated with intricate polychrome floral and vegetal marquetry. The apron is also finely inlaid, while the gracefully curved legs end in rounded feet and are connected by a shaped and decorated stretcher, providing both stability and visual harmony.Origin: NetherlandsPeriod: Late 1700sDimensions: 109x84x74h cmSKU: 17246
