Description

Beautiful oil on canvas signed lower left by Henri Jamet, an artist associated with the famous Crozant School. This work represents an elegant still life composed of a bouquet of flowers in bright hues (pinks, oranges) arranged in a glass vase, accompanied by fruit placed on a plate. The ensemble rests on a darkly patterned red tablecloth, bringing contrast and depth to the composition. The treatment is luminous and expressive, with a free, colorful touch characteristic of the painters of the Crozant School. The warm, vibrant palette underlines the freshness of the subject and gives the whole a beautiful decorative presence. I have no frame at the moment. We guarantee the authenticity of this work.
