Description

By French Vintage Interiors A stunning and imposing pair of postmodern Italian "Club" armchairs, dating from the late 1970s/early 1980s. These armchairs perfectly embody the high-end Milanese design of the era. Featuring an incredible stepped base adorned with interlocking vertical panels, they offer an assertive, massive architectural presence. Their oversized cylindrical backrests provide exceptional lumbar support and a sculptural silhouette of great beauty from any angle. Design and manufacturing: Silhouette: Low, monolithic design with invisible glides for a floating effect. Upholstery: Original textured chenille/loop fabric with fine stripes in natural tones (Oatmeal, Gold and Terre d'Ombre). Basket weave technique on the lower structure, signature of high-end manufacturers like Saporiti

Italia. Generously padded and incredibly comfortable. Designed for optimum relaxation. Excellent vintage condition. The foam is firm and holds its shape perfectly. The original fabric is remarkably well preserved, with no tears, stains or odors. Minimal wear, normal for its age, on the edges of the base. (See photos for details).
