Description

Beautiful oil on canvas depicting a draft horse in profile, rendered with a supple touch and in a subtly nuanced palette of browns, greys and greens.

With its head lowered, the animal conveys an impression of quiet strength and silent presence, with fine handling of the body's mass, the feathering on the legs, and the light gliding across the coat.

The composition, deliberately sober and uncluttered, highlights the full nobility of the subject in a style that is at once sensitive, lively and decorative.

The work is signed lower right G. Van Iseghem and dated 1953.
