Description

This charming edition by Cazin (indicated London) Paris de M. DCC. LXXXI. (1781). In speckled glazed calf, smooth spines decorated with gilt irons, titles and tomaisons in green morocco, covers with triple gilt filleting, gilt edges, marbled endpapers, beautiful illustrations. This beautiful, refined Edition of the first pocket books by the much-admired publisher Cazin in 7 volumes published under the reign of Louis XVI is a little gem, for this "Masterpiece" by the Great Jean-Jacques Rousseau, the pearl of the Age of Enlightenment. With figures by Moreau engraved by Delvaux, with a total of 1 frontispiece and 11 finely copper-engraved figures in an attractive uniform binding.
