Description

Exquisite small Florentine "comnesso" vase, featuring various semiprecious stones set in black Belgian marble. The work is also housed in a hand-carved and gilded wooden frame, currently being restored, and a passe-partout with faux malachite fabric. The vase depicts a flowering branch with a sparrow adorned with stones of various colors, which stand out against the black marble. This is a work of great taste and refinement, capable of adding a touch of class and elegance to any room. Florentine manufacture from the mid-19th century, contemporary with frame. Dimensions: H x W x D 38 x 31 x 1cm
