Description

Jean-Pierre FLOCH (1937 -2015) - "Nature Morte aux théières rouges" - Oil on canvas, signed lower right, dated on back 1978. Work descriptionVery fine oil on canvas signed by French artist Jean-Pierre Floch. This work is characteristic of his mature period, when he explores the boundary between figuration and abstraction. The painting depicts a still life treated with sculptural power. Here, Floch uses his preferred technique: the application of color with a knife. The broad flat tints of brilliant red and ultramarine blue are sculpted into the material, offering vigorous relief and deep luminosity. About the artistJean-Pierre Floch is a painter of the 20th-century French School. His works are regularly featured in auction rooms (Drouot, etc.) and are sought after for their
