Description

Ceramic coffee table
Coffee table with a sleek chrome frame and black wooden legs, complemented by a striking grey ceramic tile top
The table is supported by two rectangular pedestal-style legs with black wood veneer, they emphasize the bold, geometric silhouette. The top features an abstract with hand-painted circular and linear motifs. The pattern draws heavily from the CoBrA movement which emphasized spontaneity, childlike intuition, and a rejection of traditional rules. You can see this in the "primitive," hand-drawn quality of the black concentric circles and scribbled lines. Vertical chrome-plated steel strips are inlaid into the outer edges of the black legs, creating a high-contrast, "sandwich" effect. A thick, tubular chrome-plated steel bar connects the two pedestal legs near the
