Description

An elegant Italian Louis XVI style chandelier from the early 20th century, characterized by its patinated iron frame. A classic chandelier that combines the simplicity of metal with the luxurious sparkle of crystal, accentuated by a few elegant crystal arms in the upper section. Main features: Structure: Black lacquered wrought iron frame adorned with garlands of crystal beads and rosettes. Lighting: Equipped with 10 light arms offering balanced light diffusion. A second lighting system of 10, concealed in metal casings embellished with crystal rosettes, enhances the other parts of the chandelier. Ornamentation: Rich crystal embellishments including teardrop pendants, octagons and spheres in blown crystal, and a dagger. Style: An airy and refined design, perfect for adding a touch of Italian prestige to a
