Description

Small, slightly curved, Louis XV-style chiffonier chest of drawers in quartefeuille rosewood veneer over oak. Charming little chest of drawers in rosewood marquetry, all curved, scalloped and slightly curved, dating from the late 19th century, early 20th century, probably a Faubourg Saint Antoine work in view of the quality. It opens with two drawers on the front and a drawer on the right side. It is all-faced, decorated with Louis XV rosewood marquetry motifs with its original lingotière and bronzes including bronze sabots. Usual restorations and maintenance. Very good overall condition, drawers and locks work perfectly. Waxed varnish finish, not too flashy. An all-round piece of furniture, ideal at the end of a sofa, side table in the living room or bedside table etc. Dimensions: 56cm long by 39cm wide and
