Mahogany Side Table, Black Marble Top, Empire, 19th Century

580 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Material : Mahogany

Width : 68cm

Height : 74.5cm

Depth : 38.5cm

Description

Charming mahogany and mahogany veneer console table, Empire period. Resting on four turned columns with rings, joined by a spacer shelf.It opens with a drawer in the waist, mounted with dovetails, demonstrating meticulous workmanship.The top is topped with molded black marble, bringing elegance and contrast to the ensemble (slight chip on the right side).The lines are balanced and typical of the Empire taste, with a beautiful architectural sobriety inspired by the Return from Egypt.Quality workmanship from the end of the 19th century or the very beginning of the 20th.very fine decorative presence, ideal at the end of a sofa, bedside table or small pedestal table.Good overall condition, beautiful patina, a few normal traces of use.Delivery in mainland France

Dealer

GRFAntiquités
Généraliste
Mobile : 0628589727

1 rue des 2 ponts
Bacouel-sur-Selle 80460

220EUR.Contact us for more information