Description

Pair 1. Pair of armchairs "dossier à la Reine" in painted and gilded wood, late 19th century. Beautiful models, part of a series of eight. Six were perfectly crafted based on an 18th-century pair stamped Cheneva (Jacques Chenevat, chair and bed maker, master on December 6, 1763) to create a fine set. In good overall condition, with a few stains on the fabric. The backs are upholstered in coated paper, which can be easily removed to reveal a classic fabric. They are mounted with springs under the jaconas. Sold as a pair or as a set. A stamped pair is forthcoming and will be sold separately. Contact us for pricing on multiple pairs or the set.
