Description

Pair of folding garden armchairs in painted iron and wooden slats, dating from the late 19th or early 20th century. Riveted iron frame model, with curved wooden slat seat and back, and wooden armrests. We appreciate their generous proportions, wider than current models, offering good comfort. Pretty original patina in a soft green tone. Traces of time, wear and light oxidation in keeping with age. The original patina is a soft green tone.
