Description

Louis XVI period two-door walnut buffet - 18th century
Louis XVI period two-door buffet in solid walnut, 18th century provincial work. The front opens with two molded and panelled doors, retaining their bronze escutcheons. The jambs rest on tapered feet characteristic of the Louis XVI style. The curved belt is adorned with a central medallion-carved decoration. Small heart-shaped sculpted decorations can also be seen in the upper corners of the facade, a decorative detail found in some regional work. The interior reveals a beautiful storage space with a shelf. The cabinet is topped with a veined grey marble top. Beautiful walnut patina and good overall condition. Dimensions: Height: 91 cm Width: 137.5 cm Depth: 55 cm
