Description

Charming little walnut oratory from the late 17th / early 18th century. The front opens onto a four-lobed door. The flap opens onto a small storage chest. This prie Dieu is in good condition. It has been restored (plinth and rear jambs restored, grooves on front feet) The lock is on the back, has its own key and works. There are numerous traces of old xylophagus galleries throughout the piece. They are very old and have in no way weakened the structure or solidity of the oratory.
