Description

Alsatian polychrome wood armoire - 19th century
Charming, regionally inspired, painted wood two-door armoire from the 19th century. It features a warm polychromy of red and ochre tones, enhanced by green fillets, giving it an assertive decorative character. The front is adorned with molded panels with moving contours, framed with painted fillets, typical of popular and artisanal furniture. The uprights and crosspieces feature simple yet elegant workmanship, emphasizing the authenticity of the piece. The doors open onto a generous storage space (interior layout to be specified), ideal for linen or various objects. The ensemble rests on small, discreet feet and retains a beautiful original patina with traces of use. Charming piece of furniture, perfect for a country home or an
