Description

A Touch of French Nobility: The Elegance of 19th-Century Ceramics If you are looking for a piece capable of transforming the atmosphere of a room with its mere presence, this splendid French ceramic lamp from the late 19th century is the ideal choice. This is an object of extraordinary craftsmanship that perfectly embodies the aristocratic taste and artisanal skill of late 19th-century France. The finely worked body of the lamp is embellished with noble coats of arms, giving the piece an aura of historical prestige, balanced by refined floral decorations typical of the period. The main structure stands 65 cm high, paired with a magnificent fabric lampshade with fringes (h. 30 cm, diam. 45 cm), ensuring a warm and inviting light diffusion. Shipping and Payment Information:
