Description

Pair of armchairs by Guillerme & Chambron for "Votre Maison" 1960's. Pair of Guillerme & Chambron armchairs for "Votre Maison", 1960's, oak frame with slightly flared legs and arms integrated into the frame. Thick cushions and buttoned backrests provide comfortable seating, with a sober line typical of post-war French furniture. The ensemble plays on the contrast between the warmth of the wood and the light fabric, easy to integrate into a contemporary interior. Volumes are balanced, with a strong presence without being massive. Guillerme & Chambron: French duo emblematic of "Votre Maison", active mainly in the 1950s-60s. Their work emphasizes oak, solid joints and legible, durable shapes. They left their mark on the French "reconstruction"/modernism style with
