Description

Table d'apparat / coiffeuse Napoléon III en marqueterie et bois noirci, à système Elegant tabled'apparatformant coiffeuse from the Napoléon III period, in blackened wood richly decorated with marquetry of precious woods and gilded bronzes. The movement-shaped top features a remarkable inlaid decoration, centered on an ornamental medallion with foliage and flowering vase, framed by a contrasting reserve. The belt opens to a front drawer also inlaid. The cabinet reveals an ingenious interior system: the top opens to reveal a compartmented compartment in bird's-eye maple, with mirror recessed in the lid, typical of 19th-century dressing tables. Presence of its original small storage compartments and key. The structure rests on four tapered legs in blackened wood, joined by
