Description

Elegant oval-shaped wall mirror, framed by a remarkable glazed ceramic structure in subtle shades of green, nuanced with slight burnished variations that accentuate its sculptural relief. The workmanship of the material, punctuated by an undulating, organic decoration, lends the ensemble a presence that is both artistic and decorative. This piece is attributed to Fausto Melotti, a major figure in twentieth-century Italian art, renowned for his creations blending sculpture, design and ceramics in a spirit that is both modern and poetic. Made around the 1950s, this mirror perfectly illustrates the aesthetic of the period, between abstraction and natural inspiration. Dimensions: Height: 50 cm Width: 42 cm Very good overall condition, with an authentic patina of age enhancing its charm. A rare and
