Description

Impressive Shahsaven kilim from Persia. The piece is signed (see photos). Woven wool on wool in the traditional manner. The weave is extremely fine and refined, the piece is supple. The vegetal hues are extremely fresh, and the indigo blues are dense and saturated. This is a marvel of striking contrasts, particularly with its large ecru ram's horn motifs. This type of dimension is extremely rare in antique kilims, which leads me to believe that this kilim was probably commissioned by its first owner, who undoubtedly belonged to high society... Circa 1880. In very fine overall condition. Dim : 480 x 180 cm. Laurent Beauty of Kilims
