Description

Lovely miniature to hang or stand in a rectangular bronze frame mounted with oil on copper, lacquered sheet metal. in the Chinese style, decorated with gold pagoda figures on a red background. Late 19th century or circa 1900. Our miniature is typical of the late 19th century, circa 1880-1900, when ornamentalists, tired of the pastiches in vogue under the Second Empire, decided to return to the pinnacle of taste: a perfect copy of the perfect copy of the 18th century, perfected technical capabilities of the 19th century. At that time, Paris the height of good taste, illuminated French and international high society with luxury boutiques such as Escalier de Cristal, Sormani Escalier de Cristal, Sormani, Dasson... Our unsigned miniature is typical of the
