Description

Set of 2 19th century Vienna bronzes representing short-haired dachshunds, "father and son". Great finesse of execution particularly remarkable on the small dog considering the painstaking work of the bronzer on such a small subject. The artist has accurately rendered the characteristics of this breed, both in terms of anatomy and expression. L: 6cm and 3cm H: 2.8cm and 1.4cm Very good condition. These bronzes can be purchased separately: The large one: 280 The small one: 250
