

Shoulao Or Jurojin In Cast Bronze. China Or Japan 18th Century Or Earlier.

280 EUR

Signature : Qing

Period : 18th century

Condition : A restaurer

Material : Bronze

Height : 37cm

Description

The sculpture is cast in lost-wax bronze, with very thin walls, which called for great skill in the casting process. It's a representation of Shoulao, a Chinese Taoist deity, riding his deer. However, it may be a Japanese version of this deity, which became Jurojin in Japan. Very damaged, but all the elements are present, except for the stag's antlers. Chinese or Japanese work, 18th century or earlier. 34cm high.
