Description

Oil on canvas depicting a lively alleyway in a Maghreb medina, signed E. Destuyos lower right. The scene shows a narrow street lined with whitewashed houses, enlivened by a few figures and stalls arranged along the walls. The artist sensitively captures the intense light and warm tones of Mediterranean architecture, while the perspective leads the eye to the back of the sun-drenched street. The brushwork is supple and soft, with a touch of the artist's hand. The brushwork is supple and luminous, treated with material and transparency effects that evoke travel painting and twentieth-century Orientalist scenes. A delicate, evocative composition, typical of North African alley scenes appreciated for their atmosphere and light. Artist: E. Destuyos
Technique: oil on canvas
Era : 20th
