Description

Mid-century French "Palmier blanc" ceramic table lamp with raffia shade, 1970s This lamp is imposing in size and striking in appearance. The white glazed ceramic depicts a slightly stylized palm tree with textured leaves, a conical trunk with snake-like scales, fruit and thorns. An exotic elegance with a delicate, naturalistic design. At the center of the plant, the electrical wiring runs up through a brass tube. It is equipped with 2 sockets designed for E27 bulbs. The natural raffia shade, laminated onto a transparent material, lets the light pass through optimally. The straw-like fabric is finely edged at the top and bottom with piping. Shade dimensions: bottom diameter 43 cm x top diameter 41 cm x height 32 cm The base has a diameter of 20 cm at the bottom, and 26 cm in the middle and top due to the protruding
