Description

Beautiful Venetian mirror in gilded wood, richly carved in the Italian Baroque style, abundantly ornamented and of high form, this charming acôve grace is decorative with its well-argued frame, the upper part of which underlines the frame in a plume with the implication of ochre color. Its typically Venetian movement and the virtuosity of its carving make this mirror of measured proportions an asset for a luminous and selected decoration. It could easily find a place in a living room as well as in an entrance hall, it is in good condition and its full wood carving coated with quality like its native and luminous gilding, a steel ring allows its hanging in complete safety...
