Description

A large, hand-knotted Aubusson-inspired rug, this exceptional piece seduces with its elegant classical decor and fine craftsmanship. Its large, delicately flowered central medallion is set in a rich frame adorned with garlands and foliage in harmonious hues, blending ivory, deep red and pastel shades. With its generous dimensions of 3.10 x 2.45 meters, this rug structures space with refinement and provides a true decorative signature, equally at home in a classic interior or in a more contemporary ambience in search of character. Completely made with knotted stitches, it testifies to traditional craftsmanship, offering both beautiful density and precise rendering of motifs. Its overall condition and the quality of its colors make it a piece ready to be installed and admired. Contact me for more information and
