Description

Pair of three-light wall appliques in transparent Murano glass, made in the 1980s. The pieces feature an elegant and sinuous structure with curved, downward "cascade" arms, giving a sense of lightness and harmony to the overall design. The lighting body is enhanced by hand-crafted details, including central nodes and decorative drip pans that reflect the traditional craftsmanship of Murano production. The clear glass beautifully enhances the play of light, creating delicate and refined reflections. With a balanced and timeless design, these appliques can easily complement both classic and contemporary interiors, making them ideal for refined spaces such as living rooms, hallways, or bedrooms.
