Description

Beautiful pair of painted, carved and molded wooden bergères, cambered legs, ornamented with flowers and foliage. Stamped twice on each bergère by Étienne Meunier, received Maître Ébéniste on July 8, 1767. They have been entirely reupholstered in new fabric and passementerie from Maisons Colony and Passementeries Ile-de-France, and the patina has been refreshed. They are also in very good condition French Louis XV period .
