Description

A rare set of three blown Murano glass wall lights attributed to Seguso, Murano. Each light is composed of glass flowers containing gold powder, assembled one by one onto a metal grid, creating a dense, luminous texture with golden highlights. Venetian work, circa 1960-1970. Condition: very good overall condition. One flower missing from one of the wall lights, barely noticeable. The other two are in perfect condition. Sold as a set of 3 pieces -- cannot be sold separately.
