

Lunéville - Earthenware Bowl With Double Coat Of Arms, Late 19th Century

200 EUR

Signature : Manufacture de Lunéville

Period : 19th century

Condition : Très bon état

Material : Earthenware

Description

Louis XV style cake or fruit plate mounted on 4 Rocaille feet. It bears a coat of arms under a Comtale crown. Lunéville China stamp below. Late 19th century, circa 1880-1900. Our piece is a luxury production, with a rich form, and a special order since they were personalized for a family. The Manufacture Keller et Guérin in Lunéville, found on the tables of the good families of the bourgeoisie and aristocracy of Lorraine and eastern France at the end of the 19th century, enjoyed great renown and national success. Beautiful collector's item in excellent condition, fresh colors, no accidents. Diameter: 25cm Height: 10cm

Dealer

GSLR Antiques

French Antiques - 18th to 20th century.

Mobile : +33658910924

4 rue Vicat

Grenoble 38 000