Description

Superb and rare Renaissance period bargueno in walnut and fruitwood marquetry from the late 16th century -SpainThe bargueño, an emblematic piece of furniture from 16th and 17th century from Spain, embodies the refinement and craftsmanship of the period. This sumptuous walnut cabinet opens with a flap, revealing a richly decorated interior, composed of 10 drawers.This beautiful bargueno stands out by its fine wood marquetry work on its flap, two sides and interior.A Moresque influence that tells us it is still from the late 16th century Renaissance period. The more classical barguenos are posterior.Original working lock and keyIt rests on a very fine table featuring a superb one-piece Renaissance walnut top and later base (19th century)In superb condition and magnificent
