Description

Superb coffee table signed Roger Capron, emblematic of Vallauris' ceramic revival in the 1950s-60s. This "Shuttle" model features a top composed of glazed ceramic tiles, forming a graphic pattern punctuated by tapered lines in shades of orange, red, black and white, evoking a visual language that is both modernist and kinetic. The glaze features slight natural shading and crackling (typical of Capron productions), bringing depth and vibration to the surface. Each tile participates in a perfectly balanced composition, playing on repetitions and contrasts. The structure is based on a single tile. The structure rests on a sober base in dark lacquered metal, highlighting the richness of the top while maintaining an elegant, timeless line. Signature

"R. Capron" visible on a corner tile.
