Description

Large gilded metal dining table with glass top - Work from 1950-1970 Elegant large dining table resting on a gilded metal structure with sculptural decoration. The particularly elaborate base features a composition of crossed arches converging on a central domed lozenge motif, evoking a style both neo-classical and design from the 1950s-1970s. The curved legs and scrolls give the ensemble a beautiful visual lightness despite its generous dimensions. The thick, oval-shaped glass top reveals all the finesse of the metalwork and reinforces the airy aspect of the piece. A decorative and original model, typical of French or Italian production in the second half of the 20th century.
