Description

Superb antique safe by Fichet in Paris, an iconic French company renowned for the quality and reliability of its security systems. This brown-lacquered metal model is elegantly adorned with hand-painted floral decoration, offering a presence that is both refined and decorative. It is equipped with a double-security locking system combining a key lock and a combination mechanism, ensuring reinforced protection. The interior is in white-painted metal, and the lock is clearly marked Fichet à Paris with its serial number, guaranteeing its authenticity. The object shows visible signs of use and missing paint, testifying to its age, yet remains perfectly functional and fit for purpose. Dimensions: 40 x 30 x 14 cm.
