Description

Elegant Louis XV period corbeille sofa, in molded and carved walnut, resting on four cambered legs. The curved backrest with shoulders and lugs features an enveloping line characteristic of so-called "corbeille" seats, offering great comfort. The scalloped belt is richly molded and rests on curved legs ending in a scroll, typical of the Louis XV style. Eighteenth-century workmanship of fine quality, presenting a sound, well-preserved structure. Post-refinished upholstery, covered with a fabric decorated with palms in pink tones. The set is ready to use as is, while offering the possibility of a change of fabric according to taste. Dimensions: Length: 145 cm Maximum height: 99 cm Depth: 70 cm A sofa with harmonious proportions, ideal for a classic
