

Bavarian Riding Officer's Giber Mid 19th Century Maximilien II

380 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Etat d'usage

Description

Ghibern for a cavalry officer in the Bavarian army between 1848 and 1864, bearing the coat of arms of MAXIMILIEN II, the last king of Bavaria before the forced unification of his son Louis II. Gibern covered with red leather on the case, black leather patelette with the monogram. Gold-plated copper band. Dimension : 16 cm long , 10 cm high, 4cm wide . Banner in white tinted leather , lined in brown basane . All the brasswork is in gilded brass, the crown is still there but the escutcheon which was to bear the monogram has disappeared. Banner length 89 cm width 6cm . Do not hesitate to ask any questions .

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100