Description

Chinoiserie-style magazine rack from the early 20th century. The frame is made of dark green carved bamboo-style wood and is composed of two silk panels. The front panel features embroidered decorations with stylized floral and plant motifs, while the back panel features decorations only on the sides. The top has two handles for easy grip. These decorations and this style are reminiscent of oriental art, reflecting the taste for the exotic that was popular at the time. The wood has small cracks around the handles, visible in the photo. Dimensions: height 82.5 cm, width 56 cm, depth 17.5 cm
