

Table Hunting Guns By Arquebusier Colnot In Vienna Austria

1 250 EUR

Period : 19th century

Condition : Bon état

Description

Beautiful late 18th or early 19th century flintlock rifle converted to percussion probably around 1840. Damascus barrel with gold and silver inlay, nice dead leaf tanning .Marked in stylized script CANON COLNOT DAMAFSES IN WIEN .Length 73 cm inner caliber 15,5mn .All fittings chased and bronzed "tabac" color;Both locks chased COLNOT IN WIEN.Pretty wood with a sculpture of a swan's head with Mother-of-Pearl inlay.Nice checkering on the grip .The wood is good condition to pointed out a visible felure on the photos .Wand present with are brass tip Some pitting around the mantels and on the barrel COLNOT philipp came after his apprenticeship in 1800, received master in 1803. He was four years old in 1812 and died in 1816, his wife continued to work until 1817.Do not hesitate to

Dealer

Les Collectionneurs d'exception
Antiquités

Mobile : 0680846185

112 quai de Bezons

Argenteuil 95100

ask any questions .