Description

Polylobed porcelain box - Hunting Scene Decoration (20th century) Covered porcelain box with a distinctive polylobed shape and polychrome decoration. The lid is adorned with a lively hunting scene featuring two riders and their pack of hounds in a spring landscape. The decoration on the rest of the box reflects the style of 18th-century East India Company production. On display at Galerie Courcelles Antiquités, 97 rue de Courcelles, in the 17th arrondissement of Paris.
